Wedding Bells

STEPHENSON-FENTON

One of the loveliest weddings of the season and also of wide interest was the double ring ceremony in the Irma United Church at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday, October 14, 1952. United in marriage Miss Helen Kiedra, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eldon Fenton, and Mr. Mervyn Wendell Stephenson of Wainwright, son of Mr. Edward Smith Stephenson and the late Mrs. Stephenson of Loversa, Sask. Rev. H. W. Inglis performed the ceremony.

Entering the church on the arm of her father the bride looked beautiful gowning in a floor length dress of shimmering tulle, accented with lily point sleeves and lace over satin panels in the skirt. Her long veil with satin roses, in the four corners, fell in a train and was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. Her jewelry being a gold necklace, centred with a diamond, gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of bluish pink roses and white mums.

Miss Olive Jack was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of green eyelet organdy. She wore a matching veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The two junior bridesmaids, Miss Sylvia Fenton, sister of the bride, and Miss Audrey Stephenson, sister of the groom, wore identical floor length gowns of navy blue and yellow tulle featuring sweetheart necklines. They wore matching veils which were held in place by a rolled headband and carried matching Colonial bouquets.

Mr. Floyd Mygland, Mr. Leslie Norris and Mr. Murray MacDonald supported the groom. Mr. Arnold Enger acted as usher.

Mrs. R. L. Simmerman sang "Because" immediately following the bride's arrival at the altar and Mr. Arthur Prochnaw sang "At Dawning" during the signing of the register. Miss Joan Nilsson accompanied the soloists and played the wedding music.

Mrs. Eldon Fenton, mother of the bride, received the guests in a navy sheer dress with navy and grey accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Edward Stephenson, step-mother of the groom assisted the bride's mother, wearing a brown sheer dress with grey accessories and she wore a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception for sixty-five guests was held at the bride's home.

The bride's table was laid with a white linen cloth. A beautiful four tiered wedding cake centred the table and was flanked by white tapers and sprays of mauve and bronze mums.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. H. W. Inglis to which the groom ably replied. A toast to the parents was proposed by Mr. James Jackson.

Later that evening a dance was held for their many friends.

The bride donned a navy gabardine suit with red and navy accessories and bluish top with a corsage of bluish pink roses and she and the happy groom left on a honeymoon for points west. On their return the happy couple will make their home on the groom's farm north of Wainwright.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Norris, Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stephenson, Loversa, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Miller, Loversa; Mrs. Dennis Barber and Edward Lavoy; Mr. Murray MacDonald, and Mrs. Floyd Mygland, Mrs. Ruth Miskimins, Mrs. James Fenton, Mrs. E. W. Carter and Colin, and Mr. Gerald Stephenson, all of Wainwright; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Prochnaw of Bruderheim.

Card of Thanks

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all you kind folks for your cards, letters, fruits, fruit juices, etc. I received them both in hospitals and at home. Your thoughtfulness and kindness being shown to me at a time like this has helped beyond words to make a recovery and put me on my feet again. Thanks again from the bottom of my heart—Jack Clisdell.

DUNBAR — MICUK

On October 11 the United church at Spirit River was the scene of a most beautiful wedding when Mr. and Mrs. M. Micuk of Wainwright, and Mrs. J. Dunbar of Irma. The Rev. W. Cragg officiated.

Entering the church with her father the bride wore a long white gown of sheer rayon and nylon net over gleaming rayon satin. Her fingertip veil was held in place with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of red roses and lilies of the valley. Her jewelry was a matching thimble necklace, earrings and bracelet, gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by her sister-in-law gowning in mauve satin and carrying a Colonial bouquet. The bride's brother was best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Micuk chose a two piece blue afternoon dress with navy hat and shoes and white gloves. She wore pink roses on corsage.

A reception was held at the bride's home to about 40 guests. The table was laid with a lace cloth and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. Departing for a short honeymoon at Banff, the bride donned a grey suit and top coat with grey accessories. On Sunday, October 19 they returned to Irma to visit with the groom's parents for a few days before going on to Camrose where the groom is employed with the Imperial Oil Co.

Cookies That Stay Put On Aluminum Foil

When cutting cookies in fancy shapes, the delicate outlines can easily be lost when the cookies are transferred to the baking sheet. Here's a way that not only preserves the outlines distinctly, but permits rolling the dough as thin as you like, since you don't have to pick up the cut-out cookie.

Roll out the dough on a sheet of aluminum foil and cut the cookies, carefully removing each time any dough that clings to the cutter. Then slip the sheet of aluminum foil holding the cookies into the oven and bake as usual.

A second sheet of cookies can be made ready while the first one bakes.

Facts Concerning Commercially Canned Foods

1. Nothing is added to canned fruits except a sugar syrup, and nothing to canned vegetables except water and sometimes a little salt or sugar for seasoning.

2. The Canning Process DOES NOT affect the food value of starches, sugars, fats, proteins. The canning industry has developed many methods designed to conserve vitamins and minerals of fresh raw products.

3. Canned food may be safely left in an open can if it is covered and kept in a cool place such as a refrigerator or ice box. This you should do with left-over cooked food stored in any type of container.

Did You Know

Warm room temperatures will have much less effect on candles if they are given a light coat of clear shellac, varnish or plastic.

The dark film in aluminum were caused by minerals in the water is easily removed by boiling a solution of cream of tartar (½ tsp. to 1 qt. of water) in a pan. Be sure the entire stain is covered by the solution.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY

HUNCH PLAYER

By D. P. ANSTEY

A Pickpocket Without Nerve Is Like a Violin Without Resonance—He Just Isn't Any Good.

Louie and I stood by the rail studying the racing form. I watched Louie's nervous hand run the stump of a finger down the columns.

"There it is," said Louie indicating a horse by the name of Contrary which was running in the fifth. "I'm going to slap the whole bundle right on its nose."

"Why?" I asked indifferently. "Just a hunch," Louie said. "Mary and Contrary." He said the names as though they meant something. I said that I didn't follow.

He explained, "Mary is my girl, right?"

"Right," I agreed.

"And there is a poem about a girl named Mary who was very contrary and she had a garden," he went on.

I agreed again although I had never heard of any such poem. "It's as simple as adding two and two," Louie said. "My girl's name is Mary, I put my money on a nag in the fifth by the name Contrary. And from then on I've got plenty of pending lettuce."

I didn't follow his logic, but said nothing. Gamblers are peculiar people, and I let Louie alone to play his hunch. I had one of my own.

We stood at the rail watching the running of the second race. We were watching with calm disinterest for neither of us had bet any money. Then a pock-marked character slid up to the rail alongside me. It was Beady White.

"Hang on to your purse," said Louie when he saw Beady White. "He was a sarcasm for Beady had the reputation of being a purse snatcher. Beady pretended not to hear. 'Got anything good in the fourth?'" he asked. He stood so close I could smell the clove on his breath.

Louie said, "Scratch, I don't want any sneak thief latching on to me. Beady gave a slight sneer, but took the hint."

PEACE RIVER AREA

Crops Being Damaged By Wild Horses

PEACE RIVER, Alta.—Farmers in the Clear Hills-Dixonville area 40 miles northwest of here have reported herds of wild horses, estimated numbering as high as 500 head, are destroying their crops.

The horses break up into bands of 40 to 50 head when entering grain fields for food.

The situation has existed for several years but it is reported getting worse.

The farmers have appealed to the Alberta government for help. Livestock Commissioner W. H. T. Mead is scheduled to meet with them Oct. 7 to discuss the situation.

Under existing legislation, wild horses must be rounded up by the farmers at their expense. After a prescribed period the animals can be sold or destroyed. Sale receipts are used to defray roundup expenses, any surplus going to the government.

GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

IS Everybody's Business

QUESTION: What is your share of Alberta's Agricultural wealth?

ANSWER: Approximately ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS for each man, woman and child in the province.

AGRICULTURE, our basic industry, brought $768,000,000 to the people in 1951.

That is why your government is so concerned about the proper use and care of the soil and the welfare of the farmers.

Outstanding achievements in the past few years, brought about by the Alberta Department of Agriculture include:

- A ten-fold expansion in the production of forage crops for feed and seed.
- Assistance in the establishment of municipal seed cleaning plants.
- Determined rat extermination, coyote control and weed control programs.
- A tree planting program with annual plantings of 2,000,000 trees.
- Livestock assistance to farmers for the purchase of purchased bulls, now to excess of $500; planting of 2,608 hours, $19 rate and distribution of 1,200 dairy baler cades to junior dairy club clubs.
- Assistance to feeder associations which to date have finished a total of 141,481 head of cattle and 407,502 sheep.
- Establishment of Dairy Cattle Inspection, instruction and cow testing service to help increase the volume of fluid milk, raise the quality and direct attention to the economy of the industry.

Jarrow and District News

(This Week)

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson and family were Sunday guests at the E. Bruhaug home.

Mrs. Ethel Sarjant and son Donald of Bawlf were Sunday visitors with their families, G. Lovigs, Geo. and Stan Bridgeman were also there.

Mr. H. Beer is one man who doesn't believe in paying out all his profit in high threshing wages. He bought a separator this fall and with the help of his two sons he threshed out a bumper crop in record time. He has the right idea and more power to him, we say.

The Jarow W.A. will hold its annual bazaar at the Jarrow Hall on Saturday, November 15. There will be a good display of aprons, fancy work, hand knitted socks and mitts, etc. Also a mystery table, a fish pond for the children, a home cooking table and homemade candy. A delicious tea will also be served.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Norman Overbo and family are leaving our Jarrow Community and are moving near Holden. We wish them well in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Yakes left Wednesday for their home in Chilliwack.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dagg were pleasantly surprised last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Orachecki. They had been invited there to spend the evening when seemingly out of the nowhere groups of friends from the Jarrow-Battle districts descended upon them for a real party. Games and contests made up an evening of much laughter and fun. After the serving of a bounteous lunch they were presented with a purse of money and gifts from their friends who wished them a long and happy married life. Don and Vi very feely thanked each and everyone for their kind remembrance. They left on Saturday morning's bus for the city where they planned to spend a few days before flying back to Portage La Prairie where Don will resume his duties with the RCAF.

(Too Late for Last Week)

Mrs. O. Likness, Miss Mary Mansfield, Mrs. G. Conley and Mr. Guthrie all attended the Teachers Convention at Vermilion.

Kenneth Orachecki is a patient at the Viking hospital but we hope to see him back at school again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dagg are guests at the G. Theroux home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Young and family arrived in Jarrow on Monday from Marwayne. Mr. Young replaces Mr. Bragg. We extend to them a hearty welcome.

Quite a number of ladies attended the Tupper Tea at Mrs. W. Myers last Thursday. All enjoyed the afternoon very much and the delicious lunch served by the hostess Mrs. Myers.

Mrs. H. Whidden and Alwyn motored to the city on Monday. They came back via Vermilion where Alwyn remained to take his second year at the School of Agriculture. Clifton Holt accompanied them to Vermilion and he also will continue his studies there.

On Friday evening a farewell party was held at the Jarrow Hall for Mr. and Mrs. Bragg who left Monday for Louisiana where Mr. Bragg will be in charge of the elevator there. Despite the short notice a large number of friends turned out to bid them farewell and wish them well in their new location. The Lindberg girls and Jim Lingley kindly furnished the music and the evening was spent in dancing. On behalf of the community Carl Sonett presented them with a bedroom lamp and a gift of money. Mr. Bragg on behalf of them both expressed their regret to be leaving after they were just really getting to know everyone. A bounteous lunch brought a pleasant evening to a close.

In Memoriam

In fond and loving memory of my husband and dear father, Joseph Alfred Fleming, who passed away November 4, 1951:

Our kind and loving father, My dearest husband too, His loss no one can understand Save those he loved so true. Our hearts still ache with sadness, Our eyes shed many a tear. Only God knows how we miss him. So it dawns another year.

—Always remembered by his loving wife and family.
